* Located on the Canberra side of town is this comfortable solid brick home with great bones for an innovative transformation

* 90 years old and set on a huge 1348 sqm block it offers scope to add a granny flat down the back if need be (STCA)

* This property retains plenty of its original charm such as high pressed metal ceilings, wide skirtings and three large bedrooms

* What was once an amazing garden is now overgrown, but full of hidden treasures just waiting for you to rediscover them

* The eat-in kitchen and bathroom would benefit from a renovation but are functional as they are

* Easy walking distance to schools, shops,
