* This landmark Goulburn residence is a fine example of Federation architecture and enjoys the benefit of both quality restoration and diligent maintenance. The beautifully landscaped gardens are very welcoming and compliment the internal period features such as high, patterned ceilings, stained & curved glass windows and authentic timberwork

* The property has tremendous street appeal which has been enhanced over recent years by the construction of a new double garage along with brick boundary fencing, matching the heritage façade and keeping with the character of the home

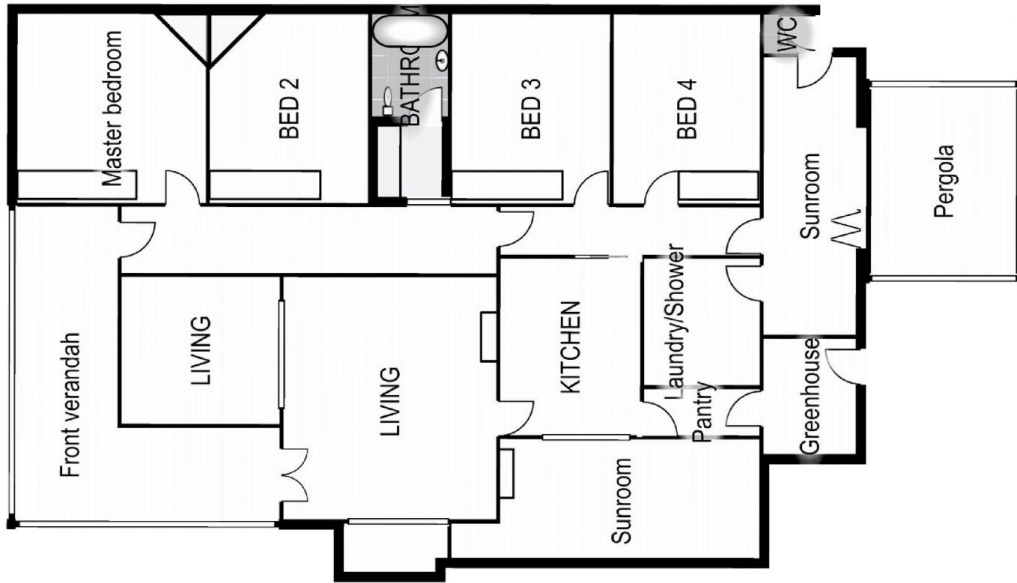

* Set on a 1234 m2 lot the commanding corner position provides vehicle access and plenty of parking in tree-lined Mundy Street which is very quiet. There is room for a
