

13 Victoria Street Goulburn NSW

4 1 1

* Only every once in a while, does an opportunity present itself to secure a home not only of character nature, but also finished in such a way that allows you to move straight in and enjoy from day one - 13 Victoria Street is exactly that. Built in 1891 and renovated from top to bottom, this is a remarkable example of Victorian architecture meets contemporary, modern flair. The list of upgrades to this property are simply put - too much to mention.

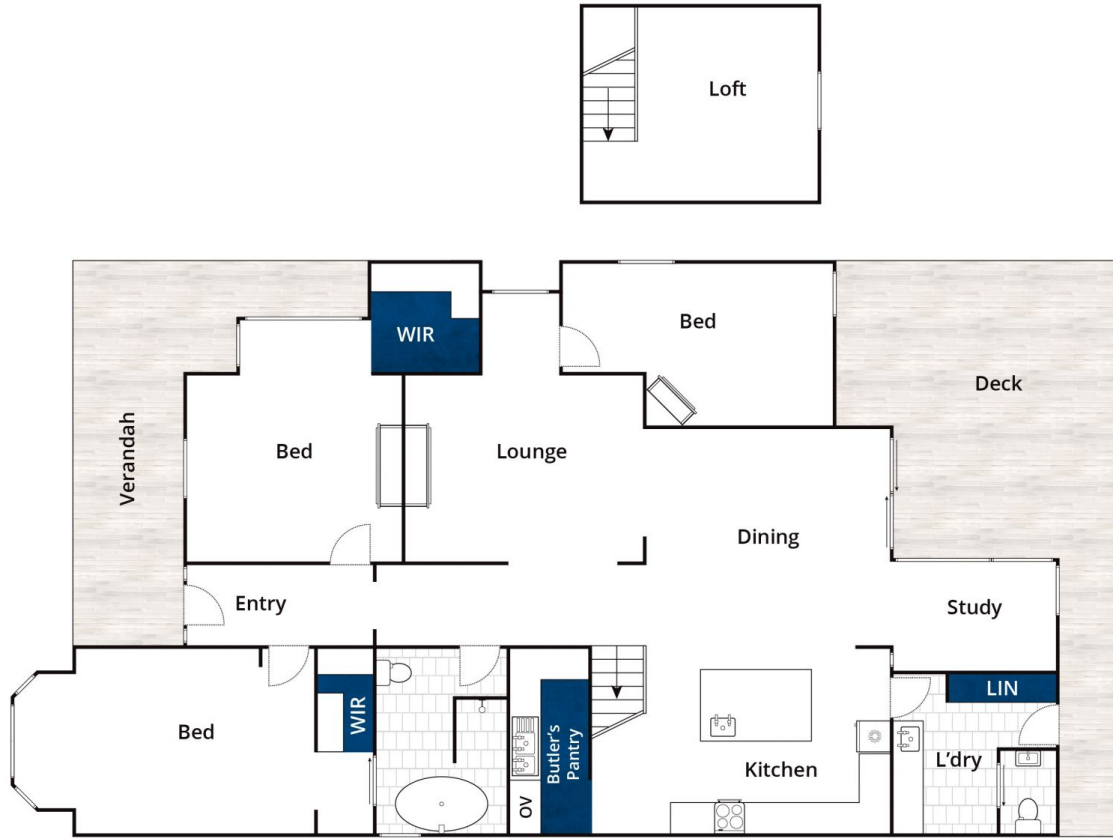

* A stunning designer kitchen complete with a large butlers' pantry has all the bells and whistles. Striking feature subway tiles along with stainless steel appliances, nothing has gone amiss in the fitout of this space. Natural hardwood benchtops as well as soft close features on all cabinetry. The finishes throughout need to be seen to be appreciated.
