* Set on 16 acres, literally 6 minutes from the CBD, is this superbly renovated and well kept Victorian homestead. With an abundance of character features throughout including the original front door and lock from the 1890 cottage.

* The homestead enjoys views across the district as well as an outlook over the manicured lawns and gardens with established ornamental trees. It is positioned perfectly to harness an abundance of natural light with a tremendous north aspect throughout all of the living spaces.

* Large, formal living room with coffered ceilings and cedar bifold doors which creates a seamless flow to the paved terrace that also adjoins the kitchen and dining area. A grand space for entertaining as well as large families who like to cater for guests.
