4 2 2

- * Delightful character home positioned in a very tightly held and highly sought after precinct
- * The property has enormous street appeal - the picket fence and established hedges frame a 1912, Federation era residence which has been freshly painted inside & out
- * Incredibly, despite the attractive façade, as you step over the original marble front step, it gets even better?
- * A beautiful, original decorative ceiling in the front hallway is a perfect introduction to the period features that you would expect from this era, 12 foot pressed metal ceilings, leadlight windows, wide skirting boards and polished timber floors, just to name a few
- * Flexible floor-plan provides up to 4 bedrooms and options for multiple living spaces plus 2 bathrooms
- * The home is light & bright and the heritage features have
